RIOT AMONG MINERS.

Serious Trouble Near Eagle, West Virginia.

STATE TROOPS CALLED OUT.

Three Hundred Strikers Attempt to Compel Working Miners to Come Out—A Fierce Battle Follows and One Man is Killed and a Number of Others Are Wounded.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 1.—Governor Maccorkle received a dispatch yesterday afternoon from Eagle, a mining town on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, about 30 miles east of here, saying that there was trouble with strikers there and asking him to send troops. The governor at once sent his private secretary, Captain White, to the scene of the trouble to see if the military was really needed.

From later dispatches received from Eagle it is learned that there was a meeting of strikers from New River and Mount Carbon held yesterday afternoon at the mouth of Armstrong's creek, about a mile from Eagle. About 400 men were present, most of them drinking. It was determined to proceed to Eagle and force the working miners to come out. They accordingly went down to W. Yant's mines at Eagle about 300 strong. There was no organization among the rioters and only about 50 guns.

The working miners had heard of their approach and taken refuge in the tipples all well armed, but their number is known. The strikers approached by the mountain above the tipples, and when within about 100 yards, began firing. The men in the tipples replied with telling effect, killing one man and wounding several.

A special to The Daily Gazette says that the firing lasted for two hours but everything was then quiet. However, Wyant, the proprietor, feared further trouble and the sheriff telegraphed Governor Maccorkle for troops. Accordingly the governor has ordered Company K of the national guard of this city and Company G of Huntington to march at once.

A later telegram from Eagle states that the situation is growing more serious. The strikers are wild with excitement and will not listen to reason. They swear to kill Wyant and burn his property. Their numbers have been increased by 80 additional men from Mann's Creek and Montgomery, who were well armed. They threaten to cut the telegraph wires and tear up the railroad. Superintendent Knapp of the Chesapeake and Ohio has the track guarded.

PLATFORM GAVE WAY.

Fifty People Fall a Distance of Fifteen Feet and Several Are Badly Injured.

FLINT, Mich., March 1.—By the breaking of a platform at Linden yesterday afternoon 50 people fell 15 feet and a score of them were seriously injured, although none fatally. The trial of a wheat stealing case was in progress in Ticknor's hall, which is located on the river bank, and the people had crowded the platform, which hung partially over the river.

When the supporting trestle gave way, several escaped injury by falling into the river, from which they were easily rescued.

Those most seriously injured were: Liberty Chamberlin of Linden, spine injured; recovery doubtful.

James McGinnis, Patrick McCafferty, Byron Hopkins of Linden, severe internal injuries.

George Jamison of Linden, head cut. Fred Werner of Linden, thigh and arm injured.

Ambrose Hoyt of Linden, thrown into the river and nearly drowned.

Johnson Elliot of Fenton, face and arm injured.

William Leonard of Argentine, internal injuries; now unconscious.

John Niles of Argentine, ankle broken.

Will Arnor of Argentine, head injured.

Herbert Whitehead of Argentine, nose broken.

Henry McCaffron of Argentine, internal injuries; now unconscious.

Theodore McCaslin of Argentine, leg crushed.

Asa Atherton of Gaines, head crushed; now unconscious.

J. A. Star, of Flushing, ankle broken and spine injured; now unconscious.

A number of others were thrown into the river and slightly hurt. Large damage suits will probably result.

MR. WILSON WORSE.

His Life Now Seems to Hang on a Very Slender Thread.

ST. LOUIS, March 1.—A special to The Republic from the City of Mexico says: Chairman Wilson was reported as not so well. His temperature is up to 103 degrees. It is supposed that the crisis has arrived at last.

Consul General Crittenden is not satisfied with daily bulletins and has asked for four reports every day until all danger is past or the end comes. The hearts of the watchers in the special car are very anxious, as Mr. Wilson is so very weak that his life seems to hang by a very slender thread.

Shot His Wife and Himself.

TRENTON, March 1.—William Ryan, a potter, 25 years of age, yesterday shot his wife, Christiana, with a 44-caliber revolver. After shooting his wife, he turned the pistol on himself, fired a bullet in his brain and died instantly. Mrs. Ryan is still alive, but no hopes are entertained for her recovery.

HE KNOWS ABOUT SUGAR.

Editor Lunn Tells About the Importance of the Industry.

CHICAGO, March 1.—M. A. Lunn, editor of The Beet Sugar Enterprise, is in Chicago. In an interview he talked discouragingly about the effect of the Wilson bill upon the sugar industry. He said that in his state, Nebraska, the business has grown to large proportions and promises to become one of the leading industries of the nation so far as western productions are concerned. He declared that the bounty provided by the McKinley law had been of great benefit to the enterprise and had induced capitalists to make investments. He was of the opinion that the senate would either continue the bounty or put a tariff on sugar from foreign countries.

Speaking of the magnitude of the sugar trade Mr. Lunn said: "This country can grow all the sugar it consumes, and when it is recalled that we expend $1,000,000 a year for foreign sugar the importance of protection of the home industry becomes apparent. If it raises the price of sugar to the consumers 1 cent a pound the people will not feel that, and the keeping at home of that enormous sum of money we now send abroad will go a long way in solving the financial problem of the country. Under the McKinley law the home industry made gigantic strides. In 1891 we made 12,000,000 pounds of sugar—beet sugar; in 1892 we made 27,000,000 pounds, and last year the crop was 40,000,000 pounds. There is an increase of nearly 400 per cent in three years. It is the most profitable crop that a farmer can raise."

STARVED HIS BABE TO DEATH.

Then the White Caps Thought It Time to Take a Hand.

BRADFORD, Pa., March 1.—White Caps took it upon themselves to reform a resident of Kinzua, a small village in this vicinity. John Bryton, a shiftless, filthy fellow who refused to work and support his wife and children, was the object of their wrath. A few days ago Bryton's babe died of starvation. There was no food in the house and the mother went out to a neighbor and begged a cup of milk. The husband was in the house when the woman returned and took the milk and drank it. The baby's death occurred soon after.

A crowd of men surrounded Bryton's miserable hovel shortly before midnight. They forced an entrance and at once proceeded to carry out their prearranged plan. They stripped the fellow, scoured a tub of cold water and gave him a bath, with lye for soap. Then they flogged him with hickory whips until he fainted. Restoratives were used and he recovered. He begged for mercy and promised to leave the country forever if they would let him go. They granted his request and he left the place. The wife will be cared for by neighbors.

Walked Out of Jail.

FORT DODGE, Ia., March 1.—Six prisoners confined in the county jail, escaped last night. Three of the number were under indictment for taking part in a riot at Dayton, in which Marshal Larson of that place was killed. One of the prisoners named Murphy, in for burglary, was captured. He says the deputy sheriff failed to lock the main door, and all they had to do was to walk out. Paris Winter, supposed to have shot Marshal Larson, and four others, refused to accept the opportunity to escape and remained in jail. The officials have not yet captured the other five.

Locomotive Boiler Explodes.

FAIRMONT, W. Va., March 1.—Engine 1210 of a coal train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad exploded yesterday, wrecking the tender and 11 cars. J. L. Stephens, engineer, and L. L. Lowe, fireman, were both badly scalded. Charles McCue, brakeman, was injured, but is able to be about. The track was badly blocked, and through trains had to be run via Clarksburg and the M. & E. railroad to Fairmont. The place of the wreck is two miles east of Colfax.

Hurled Out of a Window.

CINCINNATI, March 1.—At the Germania brewery yesterday afternoon Casper Kieper, an employee, carrying a lantern, passed near a bucket of iron paint. It exploded and hurled him out of a window to the pavement 50 feet below. He sprang to his feet and started to walk away, but fainted and was carried to his home, where Dr. Wendt treated him. He is injured internally.

Robbers Arrested.

CHICAGO, March 1.—The police have arrested three people charged with the recent bold daylight robbery of Greenberg's Star loan office on West Randolph street. The prisoners, Julius Schwartz, Fannie Stuller and Annie Kindt, are said to have confessed to the robbery. The robbers overpowered a clerk, buried him under a pile of clothing and secured $7,000 worth of jewelry.

Will Gladstone Retire?

LONDON, March 1.—The Edinburgh Evening News emphasizes its assertions that Mr. Gladstone will retire, and says positively that the Earl of Rosebery will succeed him as premier.

Spanish Fishingboats Fired On.

MADRID, March 1.—A telegram received here today from Melilla says that the Kabyles have fired upon a number of Spanish fishingboats. The news has created a sensation here.

Four Hundred and Fifty People Killed.

LONDON, March 1.—A dispatch to The Standard from Shanghai says that an explosion has taken place in a coal mine at Shan Tung. Four hundred and fifty persons were killed.

Insurgents Bombarding Santos.

MONTVIDEO, March 1.—It is reported here that the Brazilian insurgents are bombarding Santos.

DEADLOCK IS BROKEN.

End of the Long Struggle in Congress.

BLAND SECURES A QUORUM.

Before the Filibusters Can Be Squelched He Finds Himself Short Two Votes and No Vote Was Taken on the Seigniorage Bill—Proceedings of the House and Senate—Caucus Delays.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The deadlock in the house was broken yesterday after two weeks of continuous filibustering against the bland seigniorage bill, and no sooner had the quorum been procured than the house managers brought in a special order to crush the filibusters and bring the bill to a direct vote after two hours of additional debate.

Although Mr. Bland secured 184 votes when the deadlock was broken, several eastern Democrats, including Messrs. Cummings, Clancy and Wagner of New York, and Dunn of New Jersey, refusing to act longer with the filibusters. Messrs. Doolittle, Aiken, Ellis of Oregon, and Lacey, Republicans, stopped voting in the next vote, and the previous question on the adoption of the order was only sustained by one more than a quorum.

When it came to adopting the special order, Messrs. Bowers, Lucas, Pickler, Republicans, and Dunn, Democrat, again joined the silent host and the quorum was lost, only 176 members responding to their names.

The fight will be resumed when the house meets today, and if a quorum is secured on the adoption of the order, a vote on the passage of the bill can not be prevented. Mr. Bland believes it will have a majority of from 5 to 10.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—In the senate Mr. Voorhees offered a resolution appointing Senator Mills to the finance committee in place of Senator Vance. Mr. Hoar objected to its immediate consideration and under the rules it went over.

Immediately after the reading of the journal Mr. Frye addressed the senate on the Hawaiian testimony taken before the senate committee on foreign relations.

At 1:55 p. m. Mr. Frye indicated a willingness to defer the remainder of his remarks in order that he might not interfere with the Democratic caucus, because, as he said, he wanted more Democrats to hear him, and on motion of Mr. Morgan (Dem., Ala.) the senate went into executive session.

After 15 minutes spent in the consideration of executive business, the doors were reopened, and after the transaction of some minor business, the senate, at 2:20, adjourned.

The Caucus Adjourns.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The Democratic senators spent all day in caucus on the tariff bill, and adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman. During the three days session only one vote was taken, that was on a proposition to put a tax on iron ore, which was lost by a majority of two votes. Senator Pugh announced that he would not be bound by the action of the caucus on this proposition.

There was no effort to take a vote on Martin's resolution to instruct the committee, but by general consent the caucus concluded to recommit the bill to the finance committee without instructions except so far as the wishes of the various senators expressed in caucus may be considered as such.

FORT WAYNE FROZEN.

Natural Gas Main Broken and the Citizens Suffering.

FORT WAYNE, March 1.—Fort Wayne is frozen up and buried in gloom. The natural gas main broke. Nine-tenths of the residences are without fuel, and citizens are suffering greatly. Many homes illuminated by the gas suffer a double inconvenience. The engines in all the night factories failed on account of no fuel, and at 9 o'clock the electric car service stopped and the cars are dead at different points.

In homes where sickness reigns the suffering is terrible. Entire congregations were buried in gloom in the churches, and many escaped with difficulty in the rush for the exit. No serious accidents have been reported. The gas company says that the break in the main lines several miles from here will soon be repaired. All burners are open, and tears of explosions will make the turning off of the gas in the several pipes hazardous.

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY.

The Postmaster at Moscow Uses His Revolver With Accurate Aim.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., March 1.—News has reached here of a shooting affray at Moscow yesterday. John Barlow is postmaster. Some time ago there was a quarrel between himself and George Mounts and the ill feeling continued.

Yesterday morning Mounts walked into the postoffice and the old wrangle was renewed, resulting in Mounts seizing a club, with which he attempted to strike Barlow. The postmaster then drew his revolver and fired three times, each shot hitting Mounts. The wounded man is credited with having previously threatened Barlow. Both are men of good reputation.

Financial Reverses and Suicide.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 1.—Colonel William Branham, an ex-army officer and government agent at Park Rapids, Minn., under Harrison, committed suicide yesterday in his sleeping room. He shot himself through the head. Financial reverses are supposed to have caused the act.

BASE BALL PITCHER'S CRIME.

E. J. McNabb Shoots an Actress and Then Kills Himself.

PITTSBURG, March 1.—Yesterday evening about 9 o'clock E. J. McNabb, who last year pitched for the Baltimore base ball team, shot and fatally wounded Mrs. R. E. Rockwell, and then turned the revolver on himself and ended his own existence instantly.

The tragedy occurred in the Hotel Eiffel, opposite city hall, this city, where McNabb and the woman arrived Tuesday night, registering as E. J. McNabb and wife. Yesterday Mrs. Rockwell, who is a daughter of T. J. Lewis, a prominent man of Bradock, Pa., visited her parents and returned to the hotel at 8:30 in the evening. McNabb followed her to the room and shortly afterward shots were heard.

The door was broken in by the hotel people, when both were found lying on the floor covered with blood. The woman was conscious and said McNabb had shot her, but gave no reason for the deed. The murderer had shot his victim twice in the neck, one bullet merely making a flesh wound, while the second entered her neck and is now embedded in the spinal column, completely paralyzing her lower extremities.

McNabb shot himself in the mouth, and was dead when entrance to the room was forced. His body was taken to the morgue and Mrs. Rockwell is now lying in the Homeopathic hospital, in a very critical condition. The physicians say she has scarcely any chance for recovery.

Mrs. Rockwell is 30 years old, the wife of R. E. Rockwell of Seattle, Wash., who is president and secretary of the Pacific and Northwestern Base Ball League. She has been a member of the Alvin Joslyn Theater company for the past year, and is known on the stage as Louise Kellogg.

McNabb was signed for the coming season with the Grand Rapids club and had a promising future. His home was Mount Vernon, O.

As yet no reason for the double shooting has been learned, but it is generally believed that the couple were almost penniless and that McNabb took this means to end all their troubles.

IMPRISONED MINERS.

Five Men Entombed but Fair Prospects of Their Being Rescued.

ASHLAND, Pa., March 1.—Five men are imprisoned in the Boston Run mine at this place as the result of a fall of coal which occurred yesterday. There is every reason to believe that the men will be released within a few hours, and it is known that they are alive and probably unhurt.

The mine is operated by the Reading Coal and Iron company, and at the time of the accident there were seven men at work in it. They were: Joseph and John Meekes, twin brothers; Charles Mahon, Louis White, Edward Mengul, James Kramer and William Irvine.

As soon as the accident happened a rescuing party was formed and began work. They soon came upon a pocket in which they found the Meekes brothers safe and sound without a scratch of any kind. From them they learned that the other men were about 50 yards further in the mine, having run in that direction when the fall came.

The work of rescue is still going bravely on and rapid progress is being made. Shouts and calls from the entombed men can be plainly heard, and the sounds that come from the mass of coal and dirt indicate that they are assisting in the work of rescue by digging at the fall from their side of it.

EXPLOSION IN A FURNACE.

One Man Broiled From Head to Foot and Can Not Recover.

BRADDOCK, Pa., March 1.—Another terrible explosion occurred yesterday at Furnace C of the Edgar Thomson series. The furnace was shattered almost from pit to dome, and a craze of excitement followed the explosion, it being thought for a time that half a dozen men had lost their lives.

Half a dozen men were working on the top of the furnace, and how all but one escaped is a mystery. George Kachueh was broiled from head to foot, all his clothing being burned from his body. The skin pulled off his body and stood out like wool on a sheep. Slight hopes are entertained for this man's recovery. The furnace was badly damaged by the explosion and a strong force of men were put to work at once to make repairs.

AN ESCAPED CONVICT.

Theory Regarding John Taylor, Captured at Brazil, Indiana.

COLUMBUS, O., March 1.—The state prison officials believe that the supposed crook, John Taylor, arrested at Brazil, Ind., is Joseph Davis, alias Jim Dunn, a United States prisoner, received in December, 1888, and who escaped in July following with John Hill.

The latter was captured. Davis was a smooth man and is badly wanted. The description of Taylor fits him exactly. Deputy Warden Playford has sent the exact description of Davis, taken from the prison records, to Brazil and asked for 100 photograph. They will be glad to get him behind the walls again. He was sent up from the eastern part of the state.

LAPORTE, Ind., March 1.—Ruth C. Sabin, a wealthy resident of this city, died yesterday at the advanced age of 92 years. She founded the Ruth Sabin home here at a cost of $25,000, and afterward endowed the same with $35,000. Her late husband, S. S. Sabin, bequeathed $50,000 to Walsh college.

Postoffice Robbed.

WICHITA, Kan., March 1.—Four masked men robbed the postoffice at Mount Hope yesterday and obtained a quantity of valuables. The robbers escaped in a carriage.

FOURTEEN LIVES LOST

Fishing Schooner Henrietta Undoubtedly Wrecked.

NOT A SOUL ON BOARD SAVED.

The Vessel Sailed From Canso For Banquereau on January 3 and Has Not Since Been Heard From—The Owners of the Vessel Have No Hopes For Her—Names of Those on Board.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., March 1.—After weeks of anxious waiting Messrs. Oaks & Foster have given up hopes of the safety of their fishing schooner Henrietta, commanded by Dominique Penilli and a crew of 15 men.

On Nov. 23 the fishing schooner left this port for a trip to the Banks, but owing to the stormy weather, fishing was retarded, and the next heard of the vessel was on Jan. 3 when she put into Canso and recanted. At that time she had 25,000 pounds of fish aboard.

When leaving Canso she sailed for Banquereau, but since that time nothing has been heard from her. It is thought, however, that she met her fate in the memorable gale on Jan. 12, which has proved itself to be the most destructive storm to American fishermen that has swept the Banks for years.

In case the Henrietta did not sink on the 12th she was probably dismantled and disabled and the gale of Jan. 23 culminated the catastrophe.

The Henrietta was a staunch vessel of 74.88 tons and was built at Essex in 1893.

Messrs. Oaks and Foster, the owners of the vessel, have given out the crew list of 14 men as follows:

Dominique Penilli, master, 40 years old, a native of France; leaves a widow.

Frederick Harrison, steward, a native of Germany; leaves a family.

Lorimendi Gobcel, single, and Desire Emil Porter single, natives of St. Pierre.

Paul Armstrong and Grumar Morrison, single, natives of Iceland.

Oliver Larsen, single, a native of Sweden.

Albert Turner, John Reed, Benjamin DeLantry, and Albert Johnson, a native of Sweden, all single.

Michael Boudrot of St. Pierre, leaves a widow and child.

Leon Booret, single, of St. Pierre, and Albert Denjay.

USED A DYNAMITE BOMB.

A Dastardly Attempt to Blow Up the Residence of a Prominent Physician.

LANCASTER, Pa., March 1.—A dastardly attempt was made between 11 and 12 o'clock last night to blow up the private residence of Dr. J. E. Baker, one of the most prominent physicians of this city. A dynamite bomb was the weapon used. A portion of the porch surrounding the residence was torn away, and the iron fence surrounding it was bent and twisted. The heavy plateglass windows were shattered, while within the parlor, pictures were destroyed and other damages wrought.

The family was asleep, and the sleepers were almost literally shaken out of their beds by the force of the explosion.

A passerby was struck on the leg by a piece of the bomb and a fragment was hurled against the residence of Dr. Frank Muhlenburg, living over a block away. This was found to be a small piece of iron gas pipe, with a double screw attached.

Other houses in the neighborhood were rudely shaken and the inmates hurried into the street, thinking there had been an earthquake. It is evident that the miscreant who attempted this deed was either unfamiliar with explosives, or that he did not take time to properly place it. He must have thrown it upon the porch after lighting the fuse. Had it been placed underneath the porch it would have demolished the building.

This is the third dynamite outrage attempted in this city within the past month, but last night's incident is by far the most serious in its results. No possible motive for the deed can be advanced and the police attribute it to a mere fiendish desire to injure the sleeping occupants of the house.

PROBABILITY OF A STRIKE.

Miners Oppose the Reduction Suggested by the Operators.

MUNCIE, Ind., March 1.—The block miners of this district are rather indignant over the meeting of the miners at Terre Haute, to debate the acceptance of a reduction in the price. They say that the latter are organized and are endeavoring to force a reduction on the former, who are unorganized.

The block miners say that a couple of years ago, when the selling price was strong, they went to the operators and asked a share of the benefits, but were refused, on the ground that it would be establishing a bad precedent. Now, when they are asked to reduce the price of mining, they will refuse on the same ground. If the miners persist in maintaining the present scale, a strike is inevitable after May 1, when the present yearly scale expires.

Shot While Coon Hunting.

ENGLISHTON, Ind., March 1.—William Casteenie, 18 years old, of Marengo, while climbing a tree to dislodge a coon, was accidentally fired upon by a companion, who used a double-barrel shotgun. The loads took effect in the calf of his left leg and the thigh of his right. He was badly wounded.

Receiver For a Railroad.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., March 1.—Colonel James Montgomery was yesterday appointed receiver of the Evansville and Richmond railroad. This road was a part of the disintegrated Mackey system, is 102 miles in length, running from Elmore to Westport.

Fair, followed by cloudy weather; south winds.

What next? A Mr. Dinning has introduced a bill in the Legislature to "prevent turkeys and geese from destroying grain crops. It makes the owner of the turkeys or geese liable in damages to his suffering neighbor." Farmers will now have to pen their geese and clip the wings of their turkeys. This is class legislation, however, and unconstitutional. It gives chickens special privileges.

Out of $854,000,000 worth of American product exported in 1893, foreign steamers carried about $684,500,000 and foreign sailing vessels about $88,500,000 more, while American steamers carried only $17,500,000 and American sailing vessels carried about $26,000,000 more, or about 9.7 per cent. of the value of our own sea water transportation was done by Americans. It has been charged that the Republican system of protection has practically destroyed this country's merchant marine, and the above figures go far to sustain the charge.

ATTORNEY GENERAL HENDRICK, in a communication to the Legislature, states that since September, 1891, there have been received at his office 21,306 written communications. Over 18,000 written communications have been sent out from the office, over 750 briefs, petitions and other legal documents have been prepared, many of them of great length, besides the ordinary and miscellaneous work of the position. He is allowed no clerk; but has paid for two out of his own pocket, in order to keep up with his official duties. The State should pay for such work.

The Philadelphia Record thus describes the recent contest in Pennsylvania:

Given an alert, misrepulsive and untiring organization like that of the Republican leaders in Philadelphia, with skillful and experienced manipulators and arithmeticians to look after registration before the election and the inside and outside detail of taking in and counting the votes; put them in absolute unwatched, unchecked control of three-fifths of the polling booths; back them up with the money of partisans who have a further cash interest in the result; add the assurance of safety from the penalties of the law which past experience justifies; and oppose to this array of intrepid, practiced and thoroughly equipped machine managers a soft-pated, inert, yet blank aggregation like that in command of the State and city Democratic organizations—and what may you expect? For an answer to this question consult the footings of the vote in Philadelphia on Tuesday, last week.

The result illustrates the importance of a thorough organization and active work. With such an organization the 100,000 Pennsylvania Democrats who staid at home the other day might have been induced to go to the polls.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by J. James Wood.

Delinquent Tax Notice.

Notice is hereby given that by order of the City Council of Maysville, all property with taxes unpaid by March 1st, 1894, will be advertised for sale and sold according to law. Twenty-five per cent. will be added to the delinquent taxes if advertised for sale.

Those with taxes unpaid will please take notice from this and pay at once.

SKIRTS ARE STILL FLARING.

But Those For Outdoor Wear Do Not Trail Upon the Ground.

In spite of the rumors published from time to time that skirts are shrinking into narrower limits, the latest Parisian models show a decidedly flaring tendency, some of them even approximating to the shape of those worn in 1860, but longer. Those intended for outdoor service touch the ground all the way round, but do not trail upon it, trained skirts being very sensibly restricted to house and evening toilets. What a pity it is that fashion can be rational only by fits and starts!

Heavy white, cream and black laces promise to continue in popularity as a garniture and are to be found through a wide range of pattern, width and quality. Some of the new machine made laces shown in the early spring display of the shops are wonderfully good imitations of the real thing, and being fully as effective are useful for costumes the make of which necessitates much cutting and snipping of the trimming. The conscience rebels at a waist cutting into handmade lace.

Black still holds its own in fashionable favor, but is no longer confined to the magpie partnership with white that was so prevalent last autumn. In hosiery, serge and camels' hair it is serviceable as well as modish, and spring toilets in these materials may be enlivened with blue, purple or green vests with most becoming result. Few entirely black gowns are worn.

The costume of which a sketch is given is for visiting and the theater and shows marked indication of the threatened return to the drapery epoch. It is composed of black watered silk and light green velvet. The flaring skirt is untrimmied around the bottom, but it is capped by a short apron overskirt trimmed with fringe and having a sash belt, with two long ends at the back, which reach nearly to the bottom of the skirt. The close fitting round corage is covered plainly with heavy ivory lace, over which jet passementerie is sewed lengthwise to simulate a yoke. The jet extends to the waist line on either side, back and front. The plain tight sleeves are of watered silk, and a full double puff of light green velvet extends from the shoulder half way to the elbow, looped by two jet chains. The neck is finished with a jet wrinkled velvet collar.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

REMARKABLE SOMNAMBULISM.

A Girl's Self Prepared Pledge Led to the Suspension of a Terrible Crime.

That was a dreadful crime reported from Toledo 10 days or so ago about an outrage perpetrated upon a girl by two tramps. The valley papers have been printing various comments and speculations about it, and now the Elk City correspondent of the Corvallis Times offers as authentic a version of the affair which is no less wonderful than the first story, and if true, as it seems to be, establishes one of the most remarkable instances of somnambulism or sleep walking ever recorded. The account is as follows:

"Miss Cora Mays, the 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Sam Dogan, resides with her family on the south side of the Yaquina river, six miles east of Toledo. Between 1 and 2 o'clock Friday night during her sleep, and clad only in a nightgown, she arose from her bed and walked out on the back porch. There she secured an old oilcloth coat, and after wrapping it around her picked up a piece of rope and started for the river, 100 yards distant. At the boat landing she entered a boat, rowed herself up the river about 400 yards and landed on the opposite bank. After setting the boat adrift, she climbed a steep bank on the railroad track, where, with the rope, she tied her lower limbs together, passed the rope around her body twice over her shoulder, and then tied her hands behind her body. Then she hobbled up the railroad track for a distance of about three-quarters of a mile and suddenly fell. She was awakened by the fall, and although nearly paralyzed by cold and fright started to retrace her steps.

"Her cries of distress soon alarmed the occupants of a house near by, who came to her rescue and found her still tied, nervous, chilled and in the saddest of very sad plight. She was taken home at once, and then her family learned for the first time that she had been absent from the house and of course accepted her condition as the evidence that she had been the victim of an abduction. This was the news that first reached the community, and enraged men scoured the vicinity for the supposed guilty parties. Two tramps were arrested at Summit on suspicion, and after staring destruction in the face for several hours were finally released after establishing an alibi.

"A good sleep restored the young girl to her normal condition, and thus what appeared at first a shocking crime was only the queer escape of a somnambulist or sleep walker."

Notes and Comments by Mr. George W. Blatterman, County Superintendent.

BULL CREEK—DISTRICT NO. 36

The trustees are Wm. Hicks, W. N. Grimes, S. J. Barr. Teacher is Mr. John F. Pollitt. The school house is scarcely worthy the name—very different, too small and badly located. It is difficult for a teacher to do good work in such a house. What to do is a subject for deliberation. Mr. Pollitt was doing well for the school in spite of drawbacks. He is a teacher with long experience and understands how to conduct his school. His plan of requiring his pupils to repeat in their own language what they have read in their text book is a good one, and tends to fix the matter in the memory. The number in attendance was twenty-four, which is fair. The patrons are too much given to withdraw children to work in a tobacco patch during school session. A good education is of more value than all the tobacco crops raised in the district.

RECTORVILLE—DISTRICT NO. —

The trustees are Scott Fletcher, R. L. Cooper and W. W. Stubblefield. They are diligent trustees, having built a commodious addition to their school house, and put the house in first-class condition. Miss Carrie Pollitt is the principal and Miss Mae Stubblefield assistant. The attendance was seventy-nine, which is above the average attendance in many schools. Miss Pollitt is a well qualified teacher and has had long experience. She understands well how to govern her school, and several recitations we heard were very satisfactory. Miss Stubblefield teaches the primary classes, and her work was very satisfactory. We left the school feeling much encouraged.

PLUMVILLE—DISTRICT NO. 45

The trustees are J. W. Crawford, J. S. Bean and N. B. Rogers. The trustees take much interest in the school, and are making preparation to make some much needed repairs and improvements, which will put the house in nice condition for the next session. The teacher is Miss Pearl Fletcher, and although a young teacher, is quite at ease in her school room and governs and conducts her school as though she had a long experience. Her methods are the best, and the recitations gave evidence that the scholars are progressing finely under her instruction.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. B. H. Robinson, of Carlisle, is visiting Miss Myra Myall, of Mayslick.

Mr. Charles I. Rosenau, of the Bee Hive, returned yesterday from Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Martin, of Lexington, are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Roser.

Dr. Marsh, of Danville, is expected here to-morrow or Saturday, to spend a few days with relatives.

Miss Alice Shea, who has charge of the Bee Hive's millinery department, left yesterday to spend several days in Cincinnati.

Newspapers vs. Hand-bills.

The editor of an exchange, who apparently knows what he is writing about, says a newspaper has 5,000 readers for each 1,000 subscribers. A merchant who puts out 1,000 hand-bills gets possibly 300 or 500 people to read them—that is, if the boy who is trusted to distribute them does not chuck them under the sidewalk. The hand-bills cost as much as a half column advertisement in the home newspaper. All the women and girls and half the men and boys read the advertisements. Results: The merchant who uses the newspapers has 3,500 more readers to each 1,000 of its subscribers. There is no estimating the amount of business that advertising does bring to the merchant.

At the M. E. Church, South.

Large congregations attended the revival services at the Second Street M. E. Church yesterday. The subject of the afternoon service was, "Growth in Grace." In the after-service quite a number spoke, testifying that the experience of the christian life constantly grew happier and better. At the evening service the subject was the "Transfiguration." There were two accessions to the church at this service. Preaching to-day at 3 p. m. and 6:45 p. m. All invited.

Professor Fogg will be present at all the services hereafter and will conduct the music.

OUR CITY CHARTER.

Amendments Proposed in the Bill Now Pending in the Legislature.

Elections—Terms of Office—Extending Boundaries—Board of Public Works—Other Matters.

Representative Matthews has kindly favored the BULLETIN with a copy of the bill now pending in the Legislature to amend the charter for cities of the fourth class. The bill has passed the House and is now before the Senate.

The first section provides for separate ballots for city elections. It says that the County Clerk shall, in addition to the ballots prepared for State, district, county and precinct elections, prepare a ballot book for each ward. Only the names of such persons as are candidates for the city at large, and for the respective wards, are to be placed on said ballots. The said ballot books are to be prepared in the same manner and form as now prescribed by the general election laws; only the names of those shall be placed on said ballots as candidates as have complied with the general election laws; said ballots to be indorsed by the County Clerk in the same manner and form, and delivered to the officers of the election in the same manner and at the same time as required by the said general election laws. A voter desiring and entitled to vote in the city election shall be given, in addition to the ballot of the State, county, district or precinct, a ballot for the ward in which he is entitled to vote, which ballot the voter will mark and fold and deliver to the officers as now required. The officers of election must certify the result of the vote for city officers to the Clerk of the City Council.

Members of Council shall enter upon their term of office the first Monday in December after their election. All other city officers, whether elected or appointed, shall begin their respective terms on the first Monday in January following. If appointed, said officers shall be appointed by the Board of Council elected at the preceding November election.

Whenever it shall be deemed desirable to annex any territory, or to reduce the city boundaries the Council shall, by ordinance, accurately define the boundary of the territory proposed to be annexed or stricken off. Such ordinance shall be published for not less than three weeks in a city newspaper. Within thirty days after the adoption, publication and advertisement of such ordinance, a petition shall be filed in the Circuit Court setting forth the passage of such ordinance, the object and purposes thereof, an accurate description by metes and bounds of the territory to be annexed, and praying for a judgment to annex said territory. The petition shall be filed not less than twenty days before the first day of the next succeeding term of the Circuit Court. Notice of the filing shall be given in the same manner as provided for notice of the passage of ordinance. If no defense be made at the first term of the court after the filing of said petition and notice of same as provided, and the court shall make no order for granting further time for making defense, the court shall render a judgment annexing or striking off the proposed territory, as the object of the proceedings may be. But resident voters of the territory may enter protest against annexing it or striking it off, with their reasons why it should not be done, and the Judge is then to try the case and decide the question.

Section four of the bill gives Council the power—but does not make it obligatory—to establish a Board of Public Works, to consist of three freeholder electors of the city. The Board is given exclusive power and control over the construction, supervision, cleaning, sprinkling, repairing, grading and improving streets, alleys, bridges, sewers, drains, ditches, culverts, &c., &c.

Section nine requires the City Assessor to complete his work on or before the first Monday of May each year. The Assessor must take a census every two years. Property must be valued as of April 1st each year. City taxes shall be due and payable on the first day of July. Council shall appoint three Supervisors of Tax every year who shall be discreet men and freeholders. They shall meet the Thursday following the second Monday in May.

Council may appoint a Collector, who shall hold office for two years, and the Council may, by ordinance, provide that the Treasurer shall perform the duties of Collector.

EDITOR SAM STAIRS is giving the patrons of the Semi-Weekly Augusta Reporter a bright, newsy, up-to-date paper.

CAPTAIN HENRY C. GREEN, formerly of this city, is negotiating for the Hotel Portsmouth, of Portsmouth, says the Daily Blade.

MR. JOHN ARMSTRONG has bought Mr. L. Hill's handsome residence on Forest avenue for $2,300. Captain Hutchins made the sale.

IN the Circuit Court at Newport, Mrs. Elizabeth Means was appointed committee this week for Frank Means, who is now confined in the asylum at Anchorage.

MISS MAGGIE MORRIS has opened a dress making establishment at 218 East Third, next the "Old Gold" mills, and solicits the patronage of her friends and the public.

THERE are now thirty-six aged or infirm ministers and 105 families of deceased ministers receiving aid from the Southern Presbyterian invalid fund. The annual requirement is $16,500.

ISAAC AYERS, the "Jesse James" of Adams County, O., who has eluded the officers for years, was landed in jail at West Union this week. He is charged with shooting with intent to kill.

A boy claiming to be from Bracken County boarded the train at Marshall Station a few days ago for Midway, Ky., and it is thought he may prove to be the missing Henry Hodge. Mr. Gaither has written to Mr. Thos. Hodge, giving a description of the boy and his story.

EVERY family needs a clock. Go and see the beautiful set in Ballenger's window. The clock is genuine Mexican onyx and is fitted with best movement, warranted in every respect. Price of entire set, clock and candelabra, is to-day $20 and will be reduced $1 every day till sold.

UNCLE SAM'S new postal cards are a little wider than the middle sized cards of the three sizes that have until recently been sold. The little blue-ink ladies' cards are gone forever, and so are the old style medium-sized cards. The big cards that advertisers liked so well are still on sale, but when the supply is exhausted only the new style will be issued.

BLATTERMAN & POWER are heating their store room now with an oil stove which is manufactured at Ironton. Crude petroleum is used, and it costs about one cent an hour. One sixth of a gallon an hour will keep up a moderate heat and an intense heat can be kept up with half a gallon an hour. Everything is kept neat and clean and there is no odor at all.

EXCHANGE: "A little boy had committed some misdemeanor for which he was about to receive punishment at the hands of his mother. The boy begged to be first allowed to go to his room. Permission was granted, and he went upstairs to his own room and closed the door behind him. The mother followed and listened outside, after telling him he must hurry down again to receive punishment. The boy went to the side of the bed and knelt down, and this was the prayer he offered: 'Dear Lord, if you love little boys and want to help one out now is your time.' The prayer was answered."

CHANGES AT THE POSTOFFICE.

Mr. Bert L. Pearce to be the New Assistant P. M., and Mr. B. L. Goodman Chief Clerk.

Mr. Bert L. Pearce will succeed Mr. Charles Thompson as assistant under Postmaster Chenoweth, and Mr. Buckner L. Goodman will succeed Mr. Early Worick as chief clerk in the office. This information is from a reliable source, although it is not official.

Just when the change will be made has not been learned, but it will probably be at an early day.

Messrs. Pearce and Goodman are good citizens, clever and courteous gentlemen and thorough Democrats, and their friends will be glad to learn that they are to get these positions.

For the Farmer.

The Nicholasville Journal says that H. C. Hemphill had a sow to have more pigs than she could suckle, and he adopted the novel plan of raising three of the youngsters by training them to suckle a cow. At first he held the pigs in his hands while they drew the milk from the cow's udder, but now they stand on their hind legs and suck to their entire satisfaction.

During the two weeks' sale of Woodard & Shanklin and the Tattersalls Co., at Lexington, 490 horses were sold for an aggregate of $116,295, making an average of $238. Good horses were scarce, and for speed there was a greater demand than a supply.

THE Central Methodist, Catlettsburg, Ky., now closing its twenty-seventh year, is offered to new subscribers, until January 1, 1895, for $1, with a free copy for a club of ten.

THE engagement of Miss Nannie Pugsley, daughter of ex-Congressman J. J. Pugsley (who represented the Brown County district a few years ago), to Mr. Henry Graham Brown, a Pittsburg millionaire, is announced.

THE greatest bargains that have been offered can now be had at Murphy's, the jeweler. Bargains in sterling silver spoons, ladies' and gentlemen's gold and gold-filled watches, Rogers Bros' knives and forks, and any other goods in stock. Successor to Hopper & Murphy.

MR. AND MRS. GRANT STEWART, of Chicago, visited their grandmother, Mrs. Eva Hutchins, and their aunt, Mrs. Charles Phister, this week. They were en route to Daytona, Florida, where they will spend the month of March with Mr. Stewart's parents, who have a winter home there.

MISS MILDRED MARSH, who took part in a concert in this city a few years ago, is now in Europe, finishing her musical education. The Augusta Reporter says: "Her progress and success is assured by the fact that she on last Saturday played in the Linge Academy with the finest orchestra in Berlin. She will also play on the 10th of March in the Greig Academy under the patronage of Emperor Frederick."

THE Evening Sentinel says A. Greenwood & Co., who recently went from Maysville, have one of the most beautiful store rooms in Knoxville. The Sentinel adds: "There is associated together in the firm three men each an expert in his line. To Mr. A. Greenwood is given the business management, and he will see that all who enter the house is well treated; to Frank B. Miller the soliciting and contracting portion, and it is he who will come more closely in touch with you. And the detail work of overseeing all contracts will be attended to by Charles Greenwood, who is an artist of no mean ability, and who has been a contract painter for twenty years."

MAYSVILLE FAIR COMPANY.

"Devilish Ingenuity."

"Irving," the literary gossip of The Inland Printer says: "To the desultory reader who likes sharp, crisp comments on pertinent and other topics, one may safely recommend a charming book lately issued in a limited edition. The book is written by William Armstrong Collins and is entitled, 'At Long and Short Range.' The subjects range from a cob pipe to the woman who can take a joke, and by some devilish ingenuity the author has conspired with the publishers to provide no index or table of contents, so that the reader is obliged to commit the whole book to memory by way of verifying a passage. It is a book for an idle moment, but no one's time will be idly spent in reading it."

A Household Treasurer.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he had used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested? Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

A Successful Examination.

Mr. William C. Curran is in Louisville where he passed a splendid examination yesterday before the State Board of Pharmacy—his per cent. in the various studies being: Chemistry 90, materia medica 90, and pharmacy 92. He was granted license as a pharmacist. His many friends will be glad to learn of his success.

Mr. Curran has held a position at Major Chenoweth's drug store for several years, and the result of his examination shows that he has given close application to his business, and that generally wins. He will retain his present position at Chenoweth's.

World Renowned Cigars.

The famous "El Principe de Gale" Londres, 10 cents straight, affords smokers greater luxury long drawn out than any other cigar in the world, while "Peebles' Boquets," clear Havana, 10 cents, three for 25 cents, follows a close second, then comes "Peebles' Perfectoe" and "Peebles' Cat Tails," at 5 cents each, a splendid smoke. Order through your dealer, or if he will not keep them in stock, direct from the great importers and manufacturers, The Joseph R. Peebles Sons Co., Cincinnati, O.

Tobacco Barn Burned.

A large tobacco barn together with its contents, consisting of a tobacco crop of thirteen acres, farming implements, etc., belonging to John Scott, five miles south of Owingsville, was destroyed by fire Monday night. The barn was worth about $1,000, and insured for $500, while the tobacco was insured for $800. The fire was undoubtedly of incendiary origin, says a special. Mr. Scott formerly lived on Lawrence Creek, this county.

THE ROYAL ERMINE LEADS.

It is the Favorite Fur for Opera and Ball Cloaks.

An unusual number of beautiful opera and ball cloaks have come out this season. Perhaps the popularity of fine fur has something to do with it. Ermine is conspicuously in force, and all brown furs are favorites. The long cape is the most convenient and the least disturbing to delicate toilets in these days of bouffant trimmings and tremendous sleeves, although many cloaks have appeared fitted more or less closely to the figure and having large sleeves allowed to hang loose or gathered in at the wrist. In all cases the garment is made very full, and this being a season of rich materials it is an ideal wrap in the way of warmth, grace and beauty. All sorts of cloth, silk, plush, brocade, velvet and damasseeffects in wool are used, while the variety of styles is infinite.

One, a plain full circular of heavy cloth, has revers of velvet, edged with ermine reaching to the bottom, and a short double cape or wide collar, also trimmed with ermine. The capes being full give the garment a high shouldered effect. On the other hand, an English model shows the fullness mainly gathered in at the back of the neck. A short, rather scant cape falls over the long cloak as far as the elbow, bordered with fur, as are the front edges of the cloak.

Over this again is a sort of fur pelerine of an old fashioned shape, which gives the shoulders an extreme slope. Delicately tinted silks of changeable hues are used for the lining of these luxurious wraps in preference to fur, which adds much to their weight. Fur bands are used for trimming almost entirely, however, and the graduated triple cape, both large and small, proclaims its popularity here as plainly as in street garments.

A particularly pretty opera cloak made of brocade shows these three capes conspicuously. The first, bordered with a band of sable all around, reaches to the bottom of the skirt. The second falls below the hips, while the third ends just above the elbow. The two shorter capes are edged with sable tails as well as with the fur bands. A cape-like fur collar extends to the shoulders, while a flaring standing collar of the fur, very high in the back, forms a background for the wearer's face.

Where fur is not used a deep ruffle of velvet lined with silk finishes the edges of capes, while short double capes are shown made of velvet with a frill of lace between them.

A WOMAN'S CROWNING GLORY.

The Latest Styles in Coiffures Give the Forehead a Chance.

In most of the new styles of coiffures the mass of hair is arranged at the crown of the head and is usually rather prominent, although several modes are shown where it lies flat and follows more closely the shape of the head. The ornaments used are pearls, algrets and dragon flies, and one pretty style for blond hair has four "oreilles d'ane" (which do not sound so well called asses' ears) of peacock blue standing up on the left side of the five lateral puffs arranged on the crown. The front hair is parted a little to the left and curled, and the middle is drawn down on the forehead with a pointed effect.

In one new bridal coiffure the tulle veil falls full all the way around, covering the face, and the orange flowers are fastened in a narrow chaplet, with two or three erect sprays near or at the front. This is a much prettier arrangement than the late fashion of leaving the bride's face uncovered, and the tulle veil, although inexpensive, is sufficiently more becoming than those made of rich lace.

English modes show a tendency to carry the hair back from the face and allow the forehead to be almost entirely unshaded, but the French still cling to the softening effect of fluffy curls and waves. Not one face in 50 can bear a perfectly plain flat arrangement of the hair, although it has sometimes a quaint look on a very young girl and is the most dignified style for an old lady, since the one is supposed to have not acquired and the other to have outgrown the frivolities of the world. From the hairdresser's point of view it is a decided disadvantage to have very thick or long hair, as its bulk and weight are a hindrance to his art. His full ingenuity can be displayed only with short tresses light enough to not fall from their fastenings by their own weight.

A picture is given of an 1880 coiffure. The back hair is waved and drawn up to the crown, where it is secured in a braided coil, through the middle of which is drawn a projecting loop. The short front hair is parted in the middle and curled at the sides, the curled portion being combed up to meet the coil.

Figuring It Out.

A schoolmaster had been severely correcting one of his boys and finished by saying: "Now sit down and write a letter to your parents telling them how much you are taught here and how little you profit therefrom. I should be ashamed to tell them." The boy cried a good deal and then wrote:

DEAR FATHER—I am very stupid, though there is more to be learnt here than anywhere. Twice two's four—four boys go to one bed—six beds make one attic, and four attics make one well ventilated and appointed sleeping dormitory. One round of bread and butter makes one breakfast, and every tea makes its own supper.

"This time," said the master, "we will—er—overlook your conduct, and you needn't send that note." (He had been overlooking.)—London Tit-Bits.

The Making of Shakespeare.

"An old crippled woman whom I knew in Leamington, England," writes a correspondent, "used often to amuse me by her original ideas and speeches. Speaking of Shakespeare one day, I said I would like much to visit Stratford-upon-Avon. 'Law!' said she, with much scorn, 'who was he? Only a plowboy, and he was never thought nothin' of till them Americans came and took him up.'—Boston Transcript.

Wild Animals in Salt Lake City.

SALT LAKE CITY, March 1.—Lions, coyotes and other wild game driven out of the mountains by the extraordinary snow are prowling about the streets of this city. Yesterday two lions killed a horse within the city limits, another trotted through the streets of a residence portion of the city. Two hunters a few days ago killed a lion in this city that measured nine feet and weighed 800 pounds.

A Postoffice Pinnered.

BRAZIL, Ind., March 1.—Burglars went to Center Point, south of here, and robbed the stores of William McCullough, Lancett Brothers and the postoffice. They secured no money, but a quantity of light hardware. At Lancett Brothers' general store they blew open the safe, but got nothing; however, they stole quite a lot of goods. From the postoffice they took about $100 in stamps. They also opened many letters, scattering them about the room.

They Took Him to the Capitol.

MOORE'S HILL, Ind., March 1.—Davis, the alleged Moore's Hill counterfeiter, was removed from Lawrenceburg jail by Agent Carter, and taken to the United States commissioner's court at Indianapolis. The theory is being worked on that Davis belongs to a gang, with partners at other points. Three men are claiming the reward for Davis' arrest.

Postoffice Swindler Indicted.

CHICAGO, March 1.—Leroy Harris, the alleged postoffice swindler, was yesterday indicted on six separate counts of passing counterfeit money orders. He was identified by witnesses from Lima, O.; Canton, O.; Fort Wayne, Valparaiso, Ind.; Mansfield, O.; Ottawa, Ill.; LaSalle, Ill., and Aurora, Ill., who cashed his postoffice orders.

Twin Brothers Fight.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 1.—John and Alexander Tynlor quarreled yesterday over a dividing line of some land. Alex struck John a glancing blow with a pick and John drove a butcher knife into his left side, inflicting a fearful and probably fatal wound. The brothers were twins, 50 years old. John gave himself up.

Murder and Robbery.

CARLETON, Mich., March 1.—Burglars entered the residence of Henry Gierman, treasurer of Exeter township, at midnight, shot and instantly killed Mrs. Gierman and shot Gierman twice, in the hand and leg. The robbers secured $750 and escaped. They seemed to be well acquainted with Gierman and his household, as they knew when he collected the money and where he hid it. As yet there is no clew to the perpetrators.

He May Be Lynched.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 1.—Ex-Representative Charles H. Harlan, who, yesterday, killed Charles E. Moore, a leading citizen, is under arrest at his home over which Sheriff Wendor and two deputies stand guard. There are rumors of a lynching party at Cedar City, near here.

Preferred Drowning to Being Lynched.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 1.—One of the negroes supposed to have been implicated in the outrage and murder of Mrs. Ruckert a few days ago, while being closely pursued by a posse last night, jumped into the Black Warrior river and was drowned.

Judge Long's Pension.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Judge Cox in the equity court yesterday declined to issue a mandamus to prevent the pension commissioner from reducing the pension of Judge Charles D. Long of Michigan from $72 to $50 a month.

Machine Shop Burned.

WASHINGTON, Pa., March 1.—At 1 o'clock this morning the large machine shops of Koso & Company caught fire and the building was entirely destroyed. The loss will be heavy.

General Early Growing Worse.

BALTIMORE, March 1.—A special to The News from Lynchburg, Va., says: General Early's condition is practically unchanged since Saturday night. He is steadily weakening and can last only a few days at the best.

Missionary Convention.

DETROIT, March 1.—Delegates to the students' volunteer missionary convention are arriving, and it is expected fully 1,500 delegates will be in attendance.

JUDGE J. W. McDILL DEAD.

The Interstate Commerce Commissioner Passes Away.

CRESTON, Ia., March 1.—Judge J. W. McDill of the interstate commerce commission died at his home in this city yesterday of typhoid fever, aged 60 years.

During the last hours of Judge McDill, all the members of his family were gathered about the bedside. Owing to the prostration, brought on by her protracted attendance at the bedside of her husband, Mrs. McDill was obliged to retire from the room, half an hour before the end came.

The judge was unconscious eight hours preceding death. The end was calm and peaceful. Just before losing consciousness the judge spoke of the grand life of Christian as portrayed in Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress as a life worthy of emulation.

Judge McDill was prominent in state and national politics, having served as district judge, railroad commissioner, member of congress and United States senator from Iowa, in addition to being interstate commerce commissioner. He was a native of Ohio. His academic education he received at South Salem academy, Ross county, O., when John Thompson, deceased, was principal of that institution. He commenced his studies there at an early age.

In 1851 he entered the junior class at Miami university, and graduated with the splendid class of 1852, in which were the Rev. Dr. Brooks of St. Louis, Professor Thomas A. Fullerton of Wooster university, the Rev. R. H. Galbreath of Roxabel, O. Along with Fullerton he studied law in the office of the late Samuel Gallo-way at Columbus, O. Soon after the completion of his professional studies he removed to Iowa, where he soon had a high professional and political standing. He served two terms in the lower house of congress, and in 1881 was appointed to the senate to succeed Senator Kirkwood.

VIOLATED THE POSTAL LAWS.

Jos Donjan Sentenced to the Penitentiary For Eighteen Months.

BALTIMORE, March 1.—Jos Donjan, who sent the following postal card to Vice President Severson, was tried in the United States district court yesterday on the charge of violating the postal laws:

"Doomsday"—If you do not send me my expenses—25—then you will be one of the first to be kicked out, but if you do, then I will see you first before I do anything else. Send quick.

Jos DONJAN, 105 Eutaw street.

The jury, after a brief consideration, returned a verdict of guilty and Judge Morris sentenced Donjan to the penitentiary for 18 months.

Wholesale Forgeries.

CHICAGO, March 1.—It is now alleged that as much as $50,000 or more was realized by Attorney Frederick S. Baker, Joseph E. Dollus, Daniel M. Hayes and E. Coykendell, the men charged with swindling by means of forged deeds, upon which they secured loans. Bankers, real estate dealers, building and loan associations and private individuals have been victimized. Dollus and Baker have been arrested and detectives are looking for the others.

Three People Overcome With Coal Gas. RACINE, Wis., March 1.—Mr. and Mrs. James Brunton, an aged couple, and a domestic named Rose Conolly, were overcome by coal gas and when found, the girl was dead and the old people unconscious. Both will probably die.
